Robert Lee Syphers Sr.

JAN 7, 1922 - DEC 18, 2012

His Journey's Just BegunDon't think of him as gone away- his journey's just begun life holds so many facets- this earth is only one. Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost– and he was loved so much.By Ellen Brenneman

I always admired Grandma and Grandpa's wonderful marriage and their love for their children. I wish I could have known him better. My son takes after his great-grandfather. My condolences to all those who feel a loss at his passing.

My best childhood memories include being with my Grandpa & Grandma Syphers, who always loved us grandkids unconditionally. Please leave an empty seat at the pizza party because I know Grandpa won't miss it, he'll be right there beside you. Love & symphathy to all of Grandpa's family & friends.
