Hi my name is patricia gortney (rush) . I have know Shirley linton all my life. My dad Gerald Rush worked with James Linton as a truck driver . I always thought of them as my god parents . That last time I saw Shirley was at my work . She then told me that her cancer was back . I haven't seen her in a while , I thought that she was fighting her cancer . But because I haven't seen in to long time that I went to look for her and that is when I found that she had passed. I am so sorry for your loss she will be missed . I will miss her so. Thank you for letting me till u about my time with the lintons ,patricia gortney prying for your family.
