Mom's service on Saturday was great. It was a liturgical service with the her pastor of decades giving the eulogy and one who knew her only a short time giving the homily. Both tied together well – and she would have loved the message. She picked the songs – which were all about Jesus including Away in a Manger. From His birth to the cross to victory in heaven to walking with Him in the garden. The Greenwood facilities allowed for a time of fellowship outside of the chapel. And, the family thanks everyone for coming. And, for those who were not able to make it, thank you, too, for loving mom.

Dan, belated condolences from the Charles Van Liew family. I just found the notice when I was trying to get your mom and my dad together for lunch. So sorry to have missed her service- we most certainly would have been there. Cathie Van Liew Cole
