I lost track of my friend Anne over 40 years ago with moving and phone number changes. Looking for her on the Internet hadn't brought me any closer. She was a special person in my life after I got out of the military. In fact, it was because of Anne that I got my first post-Navy job working for her dad. She's come to mind any time that I would see a woman playing violin, particularly if smiling. So sorry that I didn't reconnect in time to laugh over old times with her. I'm so glad that she found love with Lori. Anne will always be 21 in my thoughts.
