

Amy Nobuko Tsuji

OCT 14, 1943 - FEB 24, 2019

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Tribute Wall .....	Page 4

Amy Nobuko Tsuji

OCT 14, 1943 - FEB 24, 2019

Amy Nobuko Tsuji was born October 14, 1943 to her parents Benso Tsuji and Laura Katsue Hamamoto in Hawaii. Amy passed away on February 24, 2019 in San Diego, California. Amy will be truly missed by her brother Rodney Kazuo Tsuji and her nieces and nephews. No services will be held at this time by the families request.

Tribute Wall

Amy Nobuko Tsuji

OCT 14, 1943 - FEB 24, 2019

AD

Albert Wong And Sylvia Wong-Dauphin posted:

Dear Rodney and Family: On behalf of the Wong Family from the old neighborhood, we are saddened to learn of Amy's passing. Amy was a such a lovely, sweet individual and reminded us so much of your mom. I had been trying to reach Amy for a short time but to no avail. Ever since we sold the apartments across the street and mom came to live with me, I often would call and check on Amy and asked her to do the same. I just stumbled upon the news when I was online searching for another possible way to contact her. We will miss Amy as much as we miss your dad and mom from being neighbors since the 1950's and hold fond memories in our hearts. We offer our sincere condolences and prayers. We look forward to hearing from you when you are able to contact us.

March 10 at 4:13 PM

EB

Emma Berdan posted:

We worked in different departments at SDSU library but our departments were next to each other. I will always remember her sweet smile, her interest in my family and a caring for everyone. She was a special person and will certainly be missed. As I am writing this I can see her smile. Bless you, Amy.

March 5 at 1:16 PM

PH

Pamela Hall posted:

I worked with and was friends with Amy for 30 years and will miss her very much. She has a kind heart, was generous and humble. I will always remember our trips to L.A. to see a play, our dinners, ushering at the theater and so much more. My life has been enriched having Amy for my friend. The memories I share with Amy will always be a comfort for me as is the knowledge that she is in a better place now. Thank you, Amy, for being a true friend.

March 3 at 1:40 AM

CS

Claudia Stall posted:

Dear Amy will be missed by so many in the SDSU library for her kind and gentle nature. She was a special friend and I will miss her so much.

March 2 at 5:22 PM

Tribute Wall

Amy Nobuko Tsuji

OCT 14, 1943 - FEB 24, 2019

CS

Claudia Stall posted:

The loss of dear Amy will be missed by so many in the SDSU library. I will miss her kind, gentle mature. We worked many years together at the library and I am proud to be a friend.

March 2 at 5:19 PM

SS

Susan Soto posted:

I remember taking Swedish together at night school in the early 1980s, when I was still a student assistant. We had a shared affection for England and Sweden, had good talks, and loved having tea. We worked together for 30 years at SDSU. I will miss her love for nature and its beauty, and so much more. Amy's kindness, generosity to me and my family, her sweet smile, and friendship will be remembered always. ??

March 2 at 6:07 AM

SW

Sharon Watson posted:

I will miss you Amy. We were coworkers for years and best friends even longer. I'll miss sharing a meal and good conversations. What ever the topic, books, sports, flowers, trees, dogs, cats, all things British etc., you had something interesting to say. I'll miss your kindness, thoughtfulness, generosity, and your attention to detail. Your ability to work microscopic (to my eye) cross stitch pieces was magic. I will treasure the paperweight and book mark you gave me.

March 2 at 3:18 AM

TV

Terry Ventura posted:

She was sweet and kind and she loved many things. For example, sports. To find out how much she loved hockey or car racing, baseball! She knew names and stats and I admired her for even caring about these sports. She loved her nieces and nephew, her family, her sweet dog Pochi. She loved England and San Diego. If she loved something she would really love it with a passion. She had a beautiful mind and heart and she will be missed. Rest peacefully friend. See you again one day??

March 2 at 2:00 AM

Tribute Wall

Amy Nobuko Tsuji
OCT 14, 1943 - FEB 24, 2019

SW

Sharon Watson posted:

I will miss having a meal and a chat. No matter what the topic you seemed to know something about it. I will miss our chats about books, mysteries, British cozies, Canada, green places, sewing, cats, dogs, flowers, trees, etc. I admired your intelligence, kindness and generosity and your ability to do microscopic cross stitching. I will treasure the paperweight and book mark you made for me.

March 1 at 11:44 AM

DC

Daniel Coyle posted:

We will miss you.

March 1 at 8:56 AM

LJ

Linda Jackson posted:

Amy, we will always miss you. You had such a wonderful heart.

March 1 at 8:53 AM

DS

Dennis Shannon posted:

Amy, you will be truly missed. You always had a smile and brought a smile to everybody around the library. It was a true gift that you had of always being so bright and cheerful.

March 1 at 3:10 AM

DA

Dan posted:

.....i will always remember your sweet smile and gentle disposition.....such a nice person.....rest in peace friend

March 1 at 2:15 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Amy by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

