Lisa Carol Byerley

OCT 22, 1963 - JUL 28, 2018

I Am Free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, To love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me; God wanted me now, He set me free.

I was crushed to hear about Lisa's death – it was devastating news. I worked for Lisa the last few years and found her to be incredibly smart, kind, fair, and funny. She was a wonderful mentor and a great listener. There have already been several instances since she passed when I thought, "Oh I should tell Lisa about this – she'll get a kick out of it!" I am so very sorry for her dad, of whom she spoke so fondly, and the rest of her family.
