Ida Carmen Colabella

FEB 25, 1931 - JUL 25, 2018

Ida Carmen Colabella February 25, 1931 – July 25, 2018 was a native to San Diego, CA. She and her beloved husband Henry Colabella were married 65 years before his passing. Blessed by their children Cia Lash (Steve), Valerie Paulino (Allan), Nick Colabella (Theresa), Michael Colabella with 8 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Survived by two sisters Esther Orrantia and Martha Bareno-Kramer. She had a long 30 year career at Loral Corporation and had her own flower business for a few years. Always volunteering her time to help out at her church and making delicious meals with her closest couple friends for many years at the VFW Hall. She had many loyal friends and was the heart of the Colabella Family. An incredibly sweet, loving, strong soul that will be missed by all. Services will be held on Friday, August 10, 2018, 11 AM at Greenwood Memorial Park and Mortuary, 4300 Imperial Ave., San Diego, CA. 92113. Graveside service. Henry and Ida will now be together again.

I fondly remember Aunt Ida and I cooking and visiting. Always laughing and telling stories and planning our next meal. She was a loving and compassionate lady. Always getting angry at Uncle Henry for lil jabs. I so enjoyed our time together. I truly miss Aunt Ida and Uncle Henry. They were my second parents for sure. Big loves to them and to the family.
