Nedra and I have such great memories of your family. When we came to your beautiful home as newlyweds in 1960 as country bumpkins we were so impressed with your fun and sophisticated lifestyle. Your Mom and Dad treated us royally and helped us get a great start to our marriage. When our Michelle was born I designated your mother as her "Fairy God Mother". As kids you three were such handsome, bright and talented children. Your Mom truly doted on you and we have admired her for being such a loving and truly charming parent. We have so appreciated and will never forget her kindness to us. Over the years you three have seemed to be somehow much more than cousins. Hope you know what wonderful feelings we have always had for you. Wish you the best as we all move to the next phases of our lives. Luv YaJay Taylor
