Eric my son, my friend, my first born. It has taken me until now to be able to write anything. I will miss you more than words can say. There is a crack in my heart that will never go away. I miss you more and more every day that passes. I miss seeing you with those beautiful girls. My life will truly never be the same again, how can it be, you're not here. I am so proud of the person you were, your personality, your sense of humor, and most of all your loyalty. Everyone that knew you was certain they could always count on you. Your family always knew you had their backs. I know I will see you again, but for now I can barely stand the pain. How can a parent live without their child? It is only with Jehovah GODS promises that I can get through each day. I live for the day I can hug you and hold you so tight. Rest quietly now Noop, for it will only be a moment till we reunite. Love forever Mom
