My husband and I were shocked and saddened to hear of Don's passing. Don has done our taxes for over 30 years. He always made a somewhat stressful time enjoyable with his hilarious sense of humor and joy for life. He was extremely competent and just a good person. We both liked and trusted him very much. His love of family was always evident. There is no one else like him. We will miss him immensely. We will keep his family in our prayers. We know his passing has left a huge void. With our deepest sympathies, Don and Anna Rushworth
