Oh My! Where do I start? Chuck was my only brother and being four years older than me, we were always close and best of friends. I used to joke that until we were older, we didn't know our real names because our mama (mom) always called us, "you darn kids." He was such fun and loved to tease. He was crazy about our two girls, and he and Wanda were Brenda and Debbie's favorites was a wonderful son, brother and a loving husband, dad, grand-dad, uncle and friend to all. Chuck never met a stranger. When on his walks, he would stop and talk to all the neighbors and all the kitties. He knew the names of all the kitties and they certainly knew him and would run out to the sidewalk to greet him. He kept a stray neighborhood kitty, named her Twinkie and gave her a great home and Kitty Life. I will miss him greatly each and every day, and don't know what I'll do not being able to pick up the phone and call him anytime I want. On one of his visits home from Hospice, he kept telling Wanda and Susan that he wanted to call his "little sis." He did and we had such a nice visit. My Big Regret is that I didn't get down to see him during this horrific time because of my terrible R.A., and mild case of this current killer flu. I do talk to him every night though, and to our Debbie, to my oldest sis, Virginia and of course Mom and Dad.

My family have been blessed to know Chuck as both our dear friend and good neighbor. We were the originals on Broadview, and always looked after each other. Once my brother and I left home, my parents became even better friends with Chuck and Wanda, and had great times together. Once my father passed away, Chuck was always there to look after my mother, for over twenty years Chuck helped and supported her, he had such a kind heart. We will be forever grateful to Chuck and he will be missed by many, especially the Myers Family!! ??

I was fortunate enough to call him "Dad". He was hard working man with great work ethic which is how he raised my Brother & I. He had a great sense of humor, was smart & quick witted, and had great strength and fortitude. As my Best Friend says, they "don't make them like our Dad's anymore". He loved my Mother with all his heart, and made sure she had everything she ever needed or wanted. His Grandchildren were the lights of his life; he had a soft spot in his heart for them. He loved his Sisters & Sister in Laws, Brothers In Law, Nieces & Nephews, friends & family, and there is nothing he wouldn't do to help anyone that needed his skills, or his truck to help someone move. If you were lucky enough to know him, you know how blessed you were. His spunk and strength of character will remain with us all. I had the privilege of sharing his final journey with him and saw him never give up through difficult health issues. I will miss him dearly.....

Chuck was a great man. I always looked up to him. He modeled the type of man I wanted to marry. A hard worker and someone who loved and took care of his family. My prayers are with Wanda, Jeff and Susie.
