Angela M. Burks

Angela Burks, 58, of San Diego, CA was born September 27, 1958 to parents Josephine and William Van Atta in New Jersey. After completing her formal education, Angela eventually relocated to San Diego, CA. She obtained four degrees and loved pursuing education and had a zest for knowledge. Angela was a High School Teacher for over 35 years. She touched the lives of many students while making them all feel special and fortunate to have come her way. Angela passed Monday, July 24, 2017, Though she's no longer with us physically, we'll always have her in our hearts. Rest in peace Angela, We love you. Services are as follows:

I was best friends with Angela's sister Jennie growing up. We lived across the street. I really enjoyed listening to Angela playing the piano. She was so good. She played The Elephant Walk & The Entertainer. I loved it so much I taught myself how to play the same songs but I wasn't nearly as good as her. Angela's mom went through so much losing her husband, then Jennie, then Angela and then Bobby. She was an excellent mother and Angela was a great daughter. I look forward to being reunited with all of them again one day.

Seeing the news of your passing has truly saddened me. Although we had lost touch years ago, I very fond memories of playing guitar & singing with you in Holy Family's 9 a.m. folk mass. You had such a beautiful voice. I'm saddened that as a teacher you had so much more to give.

Ms Burks, I had you as a teacher at SOJ way back in the early 90's. I used to help you during lunch and I loved that you had reptiles and amphibians for us to look at and learn about. Thanks to you, I have passed this love of reptiles and amphibians to my oldest son. I am saddened that we have lost a person that had the ability to touch so many lives. Rest in peace.
