Mr. Todd will always remain alive in the memories of those who loved, respected and treasured him. Ralph was a great neighbor and always stopped to chat with all the neighbors when he was 'out and about'. Never had anything negative to say about anyone. It was our pleasure to have known Ralph and count him as a friend. Ralph is now departed and with wife Afton. They were married in the Mormon Temple in Salt Lake City. The wife and I visited there this past year and we sent a couple pictures of the Temple to Dale to show his father. I believe Ralph's spiritual background became the foundation for the good life he lived. He will certainly be missed, as was Afton when she was called back to the 'home office' a few years ago.
