

Charlie Edgar True

APR 10, 1941 - NOV 28, 2016

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Tribute Wall .....	Page 4

Charlie Edgar True

APR 10, 1941 - NOV 28, 2016

No obit, services scheduled below

Tribute Wall

Charlie Edgar True

APR 10, 1941 - NOV 28, 2016

CP

Charise Petersen posted:

Hi Charlie xo I know you've been messing with the power on our dishwasher lately...because after I acknowledged it was you and I asked you to stop, it worked perfectly ! Once again you are fixing things for us, tee hee. Pete and I miss you terribly, but living directly across the street from you gives me a chance for a silent hello every day. Seeing your car still in the driveway brings your smile and jokes to mind and I smile too just remembering. Thank you for all that you were Charlie ~Dude, we love you. xoxo Charise and Pete xoxo "Heyyyyyyyyy Baby"

January 22 at 8:01 AM

SA

Sarah Allen posted:

My tribute to my dear friend Charlie. My husband & I met Charlie through mutual friends when he lived in Virginia, that was in 1964. Not too long after that we were sent back to SAN Diego. Shortly after that Charlie & his wife followed & our friendship never faltered. He was such a blessing, when my husband would be over seas, he kept my old cars going & what ever else that needed repaired. He & my husband were the best buddies, they were both Aries so that might tell you something. He was like a son to my husband & I. He would come over to visit or for dinner & tell us all about his exploits, we would hang on to every word as we could hardly believe that anyone dared to do or could do things that he did, & oh how he enjoyed life. He must have lived several lifetimes. My husband & I moved back to Florida in 1982 but we always kept in touch. After my husband died in 1996 I didn't seem to be able to talk to our old friends as the memories were to raw, but Charlie wasn't having that. He continued to call & would come to see me when I'd return to California to visit my daughter.then when I moved back in 2004 to Victorville, Ca, or as he called it, "the armpit of the world". He would come up from time to time to catch up on " my honey dos " as he called them.After he & Carolann met they came up together, I'm. Sure I don't have to tell you how much they helped me. I remember once we were living in a 4 plex in the back at the top of the stairs, he came over with his invisible dog on a leash, even stopped to pick up the dog, maybe you had to be there to fully enjoy it. Every time we saw him was like a laugh fest. He never lost that child like zest for life. He always had a helping hand for ANYONE, sometimes you weren't even aware of the need, but when he had finished you'd be delighted & amazed. If a person has a friend like Charle once in a life time they are truly blessed & I am one of those. Thanks you Charley Brown, that's what I always called him. When we talked it was about any & everything, but we always ended with, I love you Charley & he with, I love you SusieQ or I love you girl. I recently read where a new guy moved into the neighborhood & was doing some work outside when. The next door neighbor came over with his nice big bag of tools. When they were through & the job was perfect, the new guy said, " what do you make with all those tools, & the fellow answered," mostly friends." To me that is the essence of Charlie. I miss & love you Charlie Brown, a Susie Q

December 7 at 8:48 AM

Tribute Wall

Charlie Edgar True

APR 10, 1941 - NOV 28, 2016

JK

Jo Ann Koch posted:

We moved to Pepper Wood Dr. January 1984. We met Charlie... he didn't care we were gay, or from NORTH Dakota. Joked with us, fixed our cars, shared his pool. We bought a house in 1986 in North Park and we continued to visit each other. Every once in awhile I would see him at the chicken pie shop and would laugh for hours. Deb and I will miss his jokes, smile and open arms. Love you Charlie

December 17 at 12:56 PM

SA

Sarah Allen posted:

My husband & I met Charlie when we were stationed in Virginia In 1964. We've been fast friends since, even after my husband died & I didnt think I could talk to anyone that knew us like Charlie did, the memories were just to raw & painfu, but Charlie continued to call, God bless you Charlie. You helped me get through that pain. You just kept on with the jokes & I couldn't stay sad for ever. There was rarely two weeks that went by that we've didn't call each othe, I miss your calls already. Thank you for all the fun & laughter you brought into my life & a friendship like no other. Thank goodness I have " most of you jokes saved". You will always bring laughter into my life. " thanks for the memories" I. Love you "Charlie Brown", love you always, SusieQ

December 15 at 1:56 PM

JH

John Happoldt posted:

Charlie and I met almost 60 years ago when we both worked at a gas station in Springfield, Va. Charlie was a auto mechanic but could fix almost everything else. We were lifelong friends and I will miss him but he remains in my heart. Love you Charlie. Rest in peace.

December 13 at 11:11 AM

KM

Kathy Morgan posted:

I had no idea that I had hit the jackpot when I moved in across the street from Charlie nearly 10 years ago. It was always a pleasure to chat with him and hear his impromptu stories and jokes. He always kept a watchful eye on all of us in the neighborhood and never hesitated to call to remind me to close the garage door in the middle of the night or remind me that I "STILL" had that brake light out and could he fix it for me. Charlie was the guy I was always thankful to call a friend and will be truly missed. I just know he continues to watch over us as we struggle to get through these times. Rest in peace Charlie.

December 13 at 3:51 AM

Tribute Wall

Charlie Edgar True

APR 10, 1941 - NOV 28, 2016

PA

Paul Aiken posted:

So sad to hear of this tragic news! I will miss him. I am so honored to have called him my friend and mentor. He was so funny and always willing to help out when needed. I cherish the times when he would visit me at work I learned a lot from him. He will never be forgotten. Love you Charlie RIP My Friend. Paul Aiken

December 12 at 2:19 PM

JB

Jim Bello posted:

My deepest sadness losing a great friend, the bello family mourns his life, he was the smartest, funniest, person I ever encountered. He could fix anything and made sure you understood why brilliant mind love you always Charlie. Thanks for being my friend. Jim bello

December 12 at 9:01 AM

JF

Jeannie Sanders-Fino posted:

I was both shocked and very saddened by the sudden death of Charlie. Charlie was a very good friend (about 40 years). Loved to chat with everyone. We had a lot of laughs together. He will be sorely missed. Rest in peace, Charlie, we love you.

December 8 at 8:14 AM

BB

Bonnie Baranoff posted:

Sending condolences to Charlie's family and friends. I was so shocked and saddened to hear of his unexpected passing. I've known Charlie since I was a kid when my dad met and worked with him, and he's always been there to lend a hand when needed. My dad, Victor, and Charlie remained friendly for years and whenever my parents came to San Diego to visit, my dad would always be eager to see and catch up with Charlie. Charlie was a funny, wise, and kind person, and will be missed. – Bonnie Baranoff

December 7 at 8:48 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Charlie by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

