Hazael N. Bagube Sr.

AUG 9, 1926 - NOV 17, 2016

HAZAEL BAGUBE SR. Hazael was born to Benito and Marciana in the Philippines. Hazael was an elementary teacher. Later on, he served as a government employee as a municipal assessor in Camiling, Tarlac. He married his wife, Estifania in 1950. In 1978 he and his wife immigrated to the United States. Hazael and Estifania celebrated almost 53 years of marriage before Estifania went on to be with the Lord. They had 8 children together. He is survived by 6 of his 8 children along with 17 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. Children: Gloria, Joel, Benito, Hazael Jr., Wilfred, Felizal, Joy, and Maria. Grandchildren: Gloisa-Faye, Nick, Geoffrey, Christine, Gleci-Anne, Jay, Leizel, Janice, Hazael III (Jon), Freizel, Mariah, Ryan, Justin, Jellica, Reiza, Kathleen, and Patrick. Great grandchildren: Jayce, Isabel, Sophie, Israel, Emery, Genevieve, Ian, Isla Capri, Jeremiah, and another on the way. Hazael enjoyed taking his morning walks around the neighborhood, gardening, and occasionally playing slots at the casino. Hazael will be remembered and missed by everyone he knew and will continue to live on in the hearts of his family.
