I was so blessed to have Nana in my life. She played such an important role in raising me. It's hard to find the right words because Nana was so phenomenal so I think I'll just say that some of my best memories are with Nana. We went to Canada on a road trip & Nana must've bought me a dozen books to read! She would always be willing to buy me books & im so grateful for that because I still love to read. Nana use to buy me & my childhood friend matching Barbies & since my friend lived next door to Nana she use to sometimes visit Nana when I wasn't there! & of course Nana treated her lovingly & kindly ? she made such a big impact on so many people's lives. I'll miss her laughter. I'll miss her running her nails through my hair... I'll miss all the stories she told me & I will miss all the stories she could've told me. I love you so Nana! This is so hard & I know you wouldn't want me to be so so sad but I just miss you so much. There aren't enough words. You were so much to so many. I love you & someday I'll see you again !
