Rosie was the strongest woman I've ever had the pleasure of knowing, and it's not possible to ever meet someone like her again. I will miss my morning coffee and newspaper surfing with her, with exception of a few days over the past 8 years this was our routine. Rosie was always willing to listen to me babble, cry, laugh. I'll miss racing her to help her with various chores. Really I could babble on and on and still not be able to find the right words to convey how wonderful she was to me. God bless you Rosie, tell my mom hello up there.
