Oh my God no! My sister Tammy and I knew her while we lived in San Diego, she would bring us thanksgiving plates, Christmas plates, she would come up just to talk. She's been on my mind since we moved back to Missouri, I would ask around how is she? I didn't get a response, than I read that Heaven received a new Angel. Our hearts are broken ❤️ Beth and Tammy

Devotional On That Day ?He will swallow up death forever, And the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces; The rebuke of His people He will take away from all the earth; For the LORD has spoken. And it will be said in that day: ?Behold, this is our God; We have waited for Him, and He will save us. This is the LORD; We have waited for Him; We will be glad and rejoice in His salvation.? Isaiah 25:8-9 NKJV This week a dear sister passed into glory. We called her "Grandma" Linda, because she cared and took on the role of grandma for so many. She was a saint that served unselfishly. She gave of herself to others that they might see the goodness of the Savior. She will be dearly missed. She is now in our Lord's presence, rejoicing before Him. Isaiah the prophet spoke of a coming day when the Savior will be the comforter. The Savior with his mail pierced hands will wipe away every tear of sorrow and remove every tinge of pain and grief. On that day, our sin will be completely removed and His imputed righteousness will shine evermore through us. On that day, the day he redresses us with that glorified, sanctified heavenly body, will come! That long awaited day when we receive that robe of righteousness which He has promised will come! On that day, our salvation will be complete and we will be glad and rejoice in the presence of our King. My prayer is that you will be ready on that day. Pastor Pete
