Donald On Chin

JAN 19, 1928 - MAY 2, 2016

We will remember him because he loved the sea, whether being at the wheel of fishing boats or yachts. He was great at sport fishing, winning many trophies and accolades. He loved RV'ing, visiting with family and friends. He loved his foreign travels with Mary, taking many pictures to share. He loved watching baseball games on TV, and looked forward to Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy weekdays. He made a great chop suey. He loved his happy hour; it's always five o'clock somewhere. He loved his family and girls. Survived by daughters Mary Ann Cooper (Don) of Paradise, California, Cheryl Ann Thompson of Puyallup, Washington; sister, Sue Worley of Omaha, Nebraska; several nieces and nephews; and often relying on Ron Snipes (Leslie) for company and help; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren. May Don rest in peace.

I'm so glad that he was able to spend these last months with his daughter Mary Ann. He was a favorite "uncle" to me and always had a smile even when he couldn't understand what we were saying to him {wink emoticon}. I remember some great times with him and Aunt Mary, once we visited at Lake Mead, another time in Reno when they were touring around. As well as visits at Mary's home in National City, and "Mom" Nola's in Spring Valley. These last few years, we have been blessed by listening to his stories and looking at his photo albums. We can be comforted in knowing that he lived a long life enjoying his adventures on the various boats he skippered, and fishing on the lake; and the trips that he and Aunt Mary took. He was so unassuming, but rich in life experience. I will miss him.
