Manuel Johana posted:

I remember when we were kids I'd always follow you and and your friends around. And you Jose my dear brother use to tell me "Johana" go home. Lol I was just a brat trying to follow big brother every where. You always were my big brother looking out for me. I know your always going to look after me even now from heaven . I love you brother . I wish we had learned to say I love you as we grew up. But I know I said I love you while you were able to still hear us I felt your hearts presence. We will always miss you and always cherish the great memories we shared.
