Bill White

DEC 14, 1924 - DEC 8, 2015

William “Bill” Pearce White was born December 14, 1924 in Bellefontaine, Ohio and moved to San Diego at a young age where he lived and grew up in Ocean Beach. He graduated from Point Loma High School and then joined the Marines where he served as a member of the First Marine Raiders. He served in both WWII and the Korean War, and later worked for San Diego Gas & Electric for 38 years where he retired as a gas line supervisor. Bill enjoyed building and flying replica model airplanes. He was predeceased in 1981 by his wife, Dorothy. He is survived by his brother, Jim White of La Mesa and Jim’s children, and will be remembered by his many close friends.

I cleaned for Bill for a few years. I was most impressed with his talent for building and flying model airplanes. He had a great workshop and I enjoyed watching him work. I'm sorry that I can't make it to the service as I have other plans. Mary Beving-Morning

Bill was my stepfather he was the best guy I could ask for to raise me and my brother Jimmy. When he married my mom he took on two kids also an eight and twelve yr old, Bill also had three grandchildren from judi , jody john & julie and one grandson mark from jimmy he also had a great grandson Michael from jody. I will miss him very much , we had plans to see each other on his birthday on Dec 14 th but I had no idea he was already gone . Thanks for all the good years Poppie. Love You Always, say hi to mom for us. Judi
