W. Tony Wilson

JUL 24, 1958 - NOV 27, 2015

William Anthony Wilson (known best as “Tony”) was born on July 24, 1958 in Illinois. He was the youngest of three children born to William Charles Wilson and Shirley Wilson of Illinois. The family moved to San Diego County when Tony was about one year old. He attended Madison High School through the mid 1970’s and earned his diploma. He spent most of his working years as a flooring installer. Tony was a hard working guy, putting in many hours on the job. He considered himself a funny smart-ass, and he liked being called such. He was always generous to those he loved. Some of his favorite things were rock-and-roll music, working on cars, collecting coins, and spending time with his nieces. Even though Tony was never married and did not have kids of his own, he was able to take joy in his three nieces, and four great-nieces. He is survived by his brother Steve, his sister Teri; his nieces Amanda, Lindsey, Christine; and his great-nieces Taylor, Peyton, Jadyn, and Skyler. He will be missed by all who knew him. No services have been scheduled at this time.
