I had heard wonderful stories of Aunt Mildred ever since I married her nephew, Jim Hall, in 2002. He felt I should meet her...so in Jan. 2003, we flew out to visit her. What a wonderful lady. She was so cordial & made us feel right at home. She loved to play cards and we spent many an evening trying to outwit her expertise in this activity. I corresponded with her for years even when it became too difficult for her to answer. I will remember her with loving thoughts. She graciously gave me a recipe for Sweet Pickles that I make regularly and many have asked for the recipe. Thank you, Aunt Mildred! We also remember her love for chocolate which she so lovingly shared. We were so happy to be a part of her 100th birthday celebration. Until we meet again, Judy Hall (wife of Jim)
