Jesse Uribe

SEP 1, 1959 - OCT 6, 2015

Jesse Uribe, 56 of National City, CA was born September 1, 1959 to parents, Guadalupe and Jesus Uribe in Merced, CA. After completing his formal education, Jesse worked as a Border Patrol Officer for Law Enforcement for 30 years. Jesse passed away Tuesday, October 6, 2015. Those left to cherish his memory include his two children, Cynthia Uribe-Sagrero and Christopher Uribe. He will be missed by a host of family members and friends. Viewing & Services are as follows...“The Broken Chain” We little knew that day; God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death, we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone. For part of us went with you, The day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories; Your love is still our guide. And although we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.

I agree the video was beautiful. I only know Rudy but after watching the video it gave me an insight on how Rudy and the family must be feeling. I just lost someone who taught me so many things from a young age and her video took us all back as well. Sending love and prayers to Rudy and all his family. I'm so sorry for all you loss.

I'll always remember the breakfast burritos you'd bring prior to our days playing gol. Your presence at any occasion was a joy. Rest in peace brother.
