Ginger, for over 40 years I watched you watch over your family in many ways. Shared your delighted reactions to all your kids and grandkids at various milestones; births and birthdays, weddings, graduations. You were there when they needed help and gave it gladly. You lived your life with grace and dignity. My baby sister married your son and he is still her best friend, life partner and protector. Your legacy is a group of fine strong young men and women who love you dearly and who know for sure you loved them. Judy Ely
