I want to send my condolences to you Tina, the boys , the grandchildren and all the family. When you all moved in the neighborhood, Mike's was so friendly and funny he made me laugh. I thank him for working with the boy scouts at St. Rita's my husband Gino was the quiet one and Mike had many things to say always with a laugh. The last time I saw him he was doing what he enjoyed taking care of his wife could barely walk but he was making sure she had something to drink, as she face paint the children and still trying to make a jokes and that's what I will remember about this Christian man rest in peace Mike , we will meet again your earthly life is over but your heavenly life has just begun with our heavenly Father. Take care Tina your relationship with your husband was for a long time. You will miss him sometime's you will find yourself speaking with him don't think your crazy and when all the family is gone and you are home alone that's when the grieving began hold on to God he will bring you through which I know you know the power of God get some rest Tina for I know you need and deserve it stay strong and cry when you need to God bless you From The McGlory family

Fact: The first time Mike sang this song to Tina Suarez was the summer of 1969; he was back from Vietnam. Since then he's always sang it to me when he would come home from San Pedro, being in the hospitals or call me at work and sing it to me when he came back from being out of town. I was truly blessed to have been adored and loved by him. Tina Martinez

Uncle Mikey, thank you for all the wonderful memories! You always made everyone around you laugh and you were ALWAYS the Life of the Party. You always made time to come and support my boys during football season and that was very much appreciated, even though you had our game called by the referee. The love you had for your wife, Aunt Tina was beyond amazing! I will always remember you and Auntie so dancing at every party, I miss those days so much. Until we see each other again...
