Enriqueta Salgado Branch

APR 2, 1968 - MAR 3, 2015

God saw that you were getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you, and whispered, "Come with Me." With tearful eyes we watched you suffer, and saw your life fade away. Although we love you dearly, we know we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating; hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

My heart is broken... I will miss you very much my besets friend ever.. I have soo many awesome and very cherish able memories of all the fun times we have had over the years from working together to taking random road trips and going to the store at random times.. to sharing our rolled tacos with just cheese and street tacos... You will be in my heart forever I will never forget the huge smile on your face the day we were packing up my room and the smile that appeared when you opened up your christmas present and how you couldn't even wait to get home to try on ur new boots....I will love you forever my best friend and miss you like crazy and its been nearly over a nth and nothing is the same.. I have countless times I have wanted to pick up the phone to call you or text you and tell you about what exciting news I have or just see how you are doing... Dance in heaven with the angels my friend and I will see you again some day... Your bestest friend ever romae

I can't get myself to say goodbye, so I will say, as before, see ya later....my friend. Your journey was way to soon. Somewhere along the line life cheated you, but if Heaven is a true place, you are in a better place. I count myself honored to have been your friend. Love you and miss you my dear friend. Love Maria Rodriguez....
