I remember the times we had at my modeling classes. She felt apart of her when I was on the runway. She would just smile and I knew she was walking with me. She loved food and we would go eat several times. She worked very hard and lots of hours at Hunt Wesson Foods in Fullerton. I would be her transportation. I remember I was in the hospital and she hated to drive, but she got in her Chevy Monza. And drove to see me. I will miss you Mother.
