The service yesterday was beautiful! Pat will be missed by all. The stories shared brought a flood of memories to me of my younger years, camping, learning to ski, taking care of Dena, watching Ron play with tonka trucks, and oh yes the intense interviews of my poor dates that just happened to date me on a "party" night. Thank you to the Murray family for all the great memories. I actually am looking forward to going to heaven as soooo many great people are up there now. What a great party it will be! ??
