Mr. Yamate, we really going to miss you. We will always remember the Welcome we get whenever we come to visit you and your family. Your tour of what you had grown in the garden and patio area but we will miss most of all, the stroll to the back yard over looking the view of the Pacific Ocean and (in his own words) you know, on a clear day I can see Hawaii and would laugh and have the biggest smile. Then we would talk about locations in Hawaii that he visited, will miss that. Mr. Yamate, Until we meet again at the Rainbow Bridge, Aloha for now. Lynne and Wayne Ogata, Hawaii

Papa Yamate – thanks for all you did for all of us – raising a great family and especially a great son! He has followed in your footsteps with his gift of gab and being there for everyone! Thank you for showing our daughters the love and care of a grandfather – I'll always remember the start in life that you provided for David and I – You will never be forgotten – until we join you in Heaven! The memories are many, all of them good. The most recent memorable and meaningful was that he remembered my name. Walking through the front door I would wonder how we would be greeted. When I heard him call my name it was a sign that we were going to have a great visit. I overheard him being asked once who is that? He responded citing my name, then he was asked "who is he"? The response "he is a friend". This is how I will always remember James Yamate aka Pop. So long my friend your work on earth is complete. I will always be your friend!
