Tanya Roslyn Williams

APR 4, 1972 - OCT 10, 2014

I Am Free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, To love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me; God wanted me now, He set me free.

I'll never forget us working at Caprino's in San Diego and racing on the 805 to get home to get sleep before reporting to our real jobs. We became sisters and have been tight since 2000. I risked being put out the military to come see you in VA, I didn't care you were my girl, my sister and I had to see you. Her smile will be just as bright and full of love... She talked to me every chance we had when I was deployed in Afghanistan. My best friend, my sista, my girl... I will never forget you and will be lost without you... I LOVE YOU!!!

You have been in our prayers for months, and, as we spent time together over lunch or during your treatments, you grew to occupy a bigger and bigger piece of my heart. Your strength and grace, your warmth and kindness, your beauty and deep, deep love for your family will all be so sorely missed by all of us. The world is a little less bright without you, but a bright new light has joined the heavens. Godspeed, my beautiful friend. Mary and George Johnson

You had just moved to DC when we met at a club no less. Who would have know two Cali girls would take over DC. We had great times and hard times. You/we survived 911, just being in the city at that time and having each other was huge. You never took your time for granted. I'm so very happy that God put you in my life. I will always remember the good time. Love you always. Janisha
