Eleanor Labio

JUL 7, 1921 - OCT 13, 2014

Psalms 23 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The joy and peace of the Lord is knowing that your mother is with Jesus and is perfectly healthy now. I asked God to thank your mother for praying for me to get saved, as I am sure they were very effective. I do have good memories of thanksgiving and Christmas dinners at your parents house when we where much younger and for that I will always be thankful that I knew your parents. Love, Ricky

I'll always remember how your mom made my wedding cake and each flower on it matched from the same material as my dress. Love, Susan Sundstrom

I'll always remember our mom reading her Bible early in the morning, and praying for her family. She had a pink prayer room in our home and invited all her friends to come over. We would have a good prayer meeting and then a Bible study after. My mom Loved the Lord very much. I'll always remember everything she did for us. Love you Mom.
