Mom's ashes were inurned at Miramar National Cemetery last Monday afternoon. The grounds are beautiful. It was a pretty San Diego day. It will be between 1 to 2 months before the engraved cover-stone will be ready to replace the temporary one. Once it's on I will take a photo & post it here.

From Karen's Memorial Service card: God Looked Around God looked around His garden and He found an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face. He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful. He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering; He knew that you were in pain. He knew that you would never get well on this earth again. He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb. So, He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered, "Peace be Thine". It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for a part of us went with you the day God took you home.
