What a mentor. I first met Helen in 1972 when I joined the Bank. I've partied at her home, joined Soroptimist and trained in the Escrow Dept. with her. She always made me strive to do my best. I loved her smile and never tiring drive. I am so glad to have known her.

Tuesday, April 22, 2014 My late husband, Dail R. Bunch was very fond of Helen. Her bright and cheerful nature was a real blessing to all she met and worked with. Dail didn't speak of very many people within the organization but Helen was very special to him. My heartfelt condolences to Helen's family. ~Kathryn Bunch, (Mrs. Dail Bunch)

Although I am sad I will only see her smiling eyes & lips in my memories of Helen instead of here at LVR, I am happy for her that she lived a full life and shared some of it w/me. Although I know Gods everlasting peace will be w/ Helen, may it also be w/her family, specially Betty as they continue their journey on this earth without her...

I met Helen Diekmann at La Vida Real . She was always so joyful and I called her my weather reporter. The last day I saw her I went to say farewell because I know I will see her someday. She was a great sister to Betty . I will miss her a lot as she always put a smile in my face and made my day a better one. For she will never be forgotten. Those we LOve don't go away, they walk beside us everyday. Unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear.

I am Bill & Elaine Diekmann's sister, Annette, and I send my sincere condolences and love to Helen's family and friends. I can only think about celebrating Helen Diekmann, not about mourning her, because Helen exemplified "celebrating life on a daily basis" to me. Since I first met her when I was a teenager and then grew up knowing her from family get-togethers over many years, Helen always displayed her incredible "love of life & living," strength, humor, intelligence and respect, care and concern for others. My sis and I were fortunate to be able to visit her several years ago and spend a sunny afternoon in her delightful company. She was vibrant and warm, so very happy, and shared incredible stories about her career, her family and work on her biography...but most of all, just filled up the room with "being Helen." When we were ready to leave, she insisted that we each take a bib to protect our clothing when we eat. I commented that I didn't want to take her bibs from her and she waved her hand Helen style, deflecting my comment, and opened a box of about #150 bibs made of various, shiny/sparkly materials. We each left with our Helen bibs tucked nicely into our purses... real keepsakes from a fabulous woman! Helen also kept in touch via email. It was a thrill to receive a line here or there and to know how active and up to date she remained as she grew older. She in turn, waited for my emails and never failed to request more and I was always happy to oblige her with any tidbits of family news from New York. It is with much love and respect for Helen Diekmann that I share this note as a happy entry into her book of life. With love & remembrance.
