Going to miss you uncle Bobby! I can still see your smiling face. I have some great memories of when we'd all be at grandmas house. All you boys telling your stories of when you were growing up. Funny! I'm still laughing just thinking about them. I'm sure you're still up to trouble in heaven! RIP !

Uncle Bobby...how I'll miss your smile, your funny little steps when you danced, all of the names you had for everyone. Most of all, I'll miss how you smiled at me as I would walk up to you to kiss you 'hello'. You always made me feel that you were so happy to see me. And then you'd say 'Hi there, CeeCee-girl!' I'm really going to miss that. I love you so much and we're going to miss you. What's so wonderful though, is that when I think of you, I smile. You always made me smile. RIP Uncle Bobby. Someday we'll see each other again. Love you always, CeeCee and Tony Fombon

So many great memories of Bobby D. As the oldest grandchild I've heard it all & I mean all of it, from the CHARGERS suck, go play on the freeway, all the nicknames he would give everyone & to all the B/S. He always had a smile on his face, especially when he would dance with grandma & have his pinkie sticking out. LOLI could keep going on & on with stories but not enough space & we will all have one to tell. Bobby don't worry, we will take care of Grandma. We will all miss you Bobby D. Love & miss you Alana Chertkow, David And the boys
