I was away on Jury Duty and am very sad that I was unable to attend the service. Al was my first Manager, 36 years ago and I still remember his support in my early days as a new employee. And I still remember his smiling every time we crossed paths through the years. My prayers to his family on their loss.

I was saddened to hear of Al's passing. Al was my first Boss and I still remember his support when I was a new employee 36 years ago. Through the years, he was always genuinely gracious and smiling, and always remembered those early days in the 'Electric Building'. Rest in peace, Al. My blessings and prayers to the family. – Barbara Thomas

To Helen,Chris and George family–my prayers are with you. I remember Al's sweet and gentle spirit and how kind he was to me years ago, but it sure doesn't seem like it, as my memories of his smile are very much there. God is a great Comforter. Love,
