I just learned of Thad's passing and I wanted to send my condolences. I only knew him for a few years in high school, but seeing his photo and smiling face brings back memories of a young man who was very special to many. I am so sorry for your loss and I hope the DiBartelo and Puig families are finding some peace in their grief.

As cousins, Thad and I had a special bond that grew as we became adults and we were such great friends. I always admired him for his quick wit, honesty, loyalty and kindness; he was one in a million. We have shared so many fun-filled memories. I will miss you terribly, cuz. Love you.

At my wedding, a guest asked me who I was talking with. I introduced him to my brother Thad. He looked at us for a few seconds and said he could see the family resemblance. After he left, we just looked at each other and started laughing. Thad always had me laughing. Alot of times it was just a look he gave. He is the best brother you could ever have.

Margo – When I met Thad at the reunion a few years ago, it was so clear how much love there was between you. The two of you lit up the room. That love will not go away – may it sustain and comfort you through this very difficult time. I'm so sorry for your loss, and wish you peace.
