Grandma, it has been a couple weeks now since you went Home to be with the Lord. All of us miss you and wish you could be here with us but we take comfort in the fact that you are home. Joined with the rest of the family and left before you. Celebrating your new home with family and freinds and remembering every great memory that was taken from you at the end of your physical life. I will miss our times together: taking you to the store, going out to eat and just talking about your life and how you managed to stay so strong throughtout the years. I thank you for being a wonderful grandmother, mother, freind, cousin, tia to all those that knew you. Till we meet again in our Father's Kingdom.

Grandma, I will miss you very much. I know that you are dancing and praising in heaven with your mom, brothers and sisters and all else whom you loved. Until we can dance and praise together... I'll miss you always. Love your granddaughter Adrianna

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My fathers house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And f I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. John 14:1-3

Let us give thanks to the Lord Jesus Christ! Because of his great mercy he gave us new life by raising Jesus Christ from death. This fills us with living hope, and so we look forward to possessing the rich blessings that God keeps for his people. He keeps them for you in heaven, where they cannot decay or spoil or fade away. 1 Peter 1:3-4 Thank you Mom for being a woman of faith, hope and courage. Memories of us worshipping the Lord and reading his word together will forever be in my heart. I love you
