Hi Mom, well I finally did what you asked me to do, as I promised you I would. Daniela and I went to Birmingham AL and spread your ashes on the land where you grew up and on the Old Montgomery Highway. It was very emotional for me since I had heard so much about that place from you and grandma. I just wish we had gone there together before you passed away. I miss you and wish we could have done so many more things together. I regret the very long time we spent apart from each other. R.I.P. Love you.

The thought of u not being here anymore breaks my heart , but the thought of u being in a better place and knowing that u r no longer suffering soothes it.... There's no amount of words that can describe how special and how much u ment to myself and the rest of the family and there's no way that we can ever repay u enuff.. all we can do is make sure we live and love in a way that would make u proud, and that is what I vow to do! I love and miss u so much and there's not a day that passes without thoughts and memories of u in my heart... So proud to be ur granddaughter and a wheeler...love u grandma mmmwwhhhaa

I am truly blessed to have met you Ms. Wheeler BKA "Dirty ole lady". Whenever I saw you, we'd kid about what HBO special you were watching hence the name. :0). And you'd laugh and chuckle. Even now, memories of that laughter brings a smile to my face. You have truly touched many and I know you will be watching us all from your seat up there. I also hope that they have HBO. :0)

Mama you will be missed! I am so grateful that I was there to see you off on your journey to the promise land. All of your family came together on Memorial day to celebrate your life. What you struggled so hard to do in life and couldn't you did in death. You were the light in so many peoples lives and they were all there to testify what you meant to them. We were so blessed to have you around for so long. We love you and are happy that you are no longer suffering and are in peace with your family members. May God bless you and keep your soul. Rest in peace.
