Dear Mrs. Waters, I was a young teen when Perry, Jr. and my sister, Brenda, married. Over the years you extended your heart and included all of the Jacksons as family. You filled all of our holidays with memories and delights. Our love, respect and appreciation for you will be with us always. Rest, now, until we meet again!

To my beloved mother-in-law Plomar Waters. Big Mommy, as you were often called, you were more than a mother-in-law to me. You stood along side of my Mom; and that is saying a lot. There was nothing you wouldn't do for me and our family. When God was handing out mother-in-laws he gave me one of the best. I was never more proud to introduce you to others. My only wish is that I could have done more. I will take care of the family here. It is time for you to rest. You are now in God's loving arms. You will be deeply missed. I love you Mom/ Big Mommy
