Our friendship had a profound impact on my life, and I will always remember him for his kindness. My heart goes out to his parents Denise and John. Lino Vitale posted:

Matt was in my before and after school child care from the 2nd grade to his 5th year! I was his soccer coach, his teacher and most importantly his friend!!! The kid always had a smile on his face, a smile in his heart, and passed it on to everyone he encountered! He was the kid who stood up for those that got picked on, teased or pushed around. He represented true humanity at his age. He laughed more than any kid I knew, coached or mentored! His parents were always involved in everything he did, good and as little boys often do some bad. (bad for Matt was laughing if someone fell) not bad at all!!! But his parents always kept him in check! I find it hard to describe what I'm feeling now, but I asked myself what would matt tell me to do moments before he passed???? Very simple??he would have told me to remember him with laughter, remember him with smiles and remember him with joy in my heart!!! Why would I want to remember him with tears, sadness and sorrow!! That's not how he lived and that's not the way I will honor him! I truly loved this kid, as many of you did! So I encourage you to do things with happiness and love to others in Matts Honor!!! Do it every day, to whomever you meet. Smile as though Matt were smiling through you! I can't write that he will be missed, because he will never leave me, I can't write I will always remember you, because I still know you!!! I can say I can't wait to see you again!!! You are now where you are perfect, in heaven where there is NO pain, no hate and only love and peace can be around you?. So as Matt use to tell me every day before he left Kate Sessions child care??Hey Lino-Cappuccino, wanna walk me to my car?? my response? ?Anytime buddy, I will always walk you to your car!!!!? Then he would make me chase him!!! Hey Matt?..now you can always walk me to where ever I'm going!!! And I will always now your there?.
