

Janet Rae Stevens

JAN 31, 1934 - OCT 14, 2011

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Janet Rae Stevens

JAN 31, 1934 - OCT 14, 2011

STEVENS, JANET RAE Jan. 31, 1934 to Oct. 14, 2011 Janet passed peacefully at her home in El Cajon with her son, Mark Baker, and daughter, Bonnie Baker, by her side. Janet was born in South Dakota to Morris and Edith Knutsen but was a lifelong resident of San Diego County. She was primarily employed in the medical admin field but worked tirelessly in serving her community and the people in need. She loved music and dance, especially Hawaiian. She was known to be an outspoken advocate of many causes and was not shy about taking on even the Federal government if necessary. She is survived by three sisters, four children, eight grandchildren, and eight great grandchildren but will also be missed by a myriad of friends, church members, caregivers, and the local Hui. Her memorial service will be at 11 a.m., on Friday, October 21, 2011 at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in La Mesa, with a viewing to precede it at 10 a.m. The family suggests a contribution to your favorite local charity in lieu of flowers. Arrangements under the direction of Greenwood Memorial Park & Mortuary, San Diego, CA.

Tribute Wall

Janet Rae Stevens

JAN 31, 1934 - OCT 14, 2011

MR

Momi Rapozo posted:

Janet was a kind, gentle and beautiful spirit. We were blessed to enjoy her presence at Hui functions for many years. She will be missed dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with her ohana and loved ones. E ho'omaha me ka maluhia

October 27 at 5:00 PM

DF

Donald Frost posted:

My dear friend Jan was a great humanitarian and I offer this prayer for her dearly departed soul. God of Mercy, Look kindly on Your servant Janet Rae Stevens who has set down the burden of her years as she served You faithfully throughout her life, may You give her the fullness of Your peace and joy. We give thanks for the long life of Janet Rae Stevens, now caught up in Your eternal love. We make our prayer in the Name of Jesus, who is our Risen Lord now and forever. Amen. May Perpetual Light Shine Brightly. Express my deepest and sincerest condolences to Jan's Family. Respectfully Donald Duane Frost

October 19 at 5:00 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Janet by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

