Joyce A. Loyd

JAN 10, 1948 - SEP 25, 2011

Obituary of Joyce A Loyd Joyce Anise Loyd was born to Wardell and Joan Herndon on January 10, 1948 at Scripps hospital in La Jolla, California. She attended St. Bridgette Catholic School through the sixth grade, before continuing her education at O'Farrel Junior High School and graduated from Lincoln High Class of 1966. She also attended Mesa collage. In 1965 she met Daniel Loyd through mutual friends. They then got married on July 20, 1968. To this union two daughters were born, Kimberly Danielle and Tamara Nicole, who brought them much happiness through the 35 years of marriage. Joyce began her career with the Public Works Administration, while her family was stationed in Adak, Alaska. Although she was hired to fill a temporary position she demonstrated her strong work ethic and was asked to continue her position. She worked in Personnel and Human Resources, EEO, Affirmative Action, Affirmative Employment and was a part of Government groups such as the Federal Employed Woman's Group, IMAGE, and youth programs for engineers for over 33 years. She was preparing to announce her retirement for November 3, 2011 at the time of her calling. Joyce was a woman who had a strong and growing relationship with God. She began her introduction to Christ at St Rita's Church in San Diego, California. Where she and her husband got married and where her children were baptized. She later attended "On the Rise" with Pastor CJ, and Meridian Baptist Church with Pastor Slade in El Cajon. There she was a dedicated morning greeter on the Welcome Committee and Bible Studies. She also took part in the financial planner committee. Joyce supported Redemption Church, in San Diego and became a loved attendee there as well. Joyce is survived by two daughters, Kimberly Todd and Tamara Loyd (who relocated from Los Angeles to San Diego to care for their mother when she became ill); son-in-law, Larry Todd, two grandchildren, Lewis and Jasmine Todd of Chandler, Arizona, her mother, Joan Bouton, sister, Janice Herndon of Chula Vista, California and brother, Tony Herndon of San

I am grateful we had closure and peace together it has helped me to not have regrets in our journey. Mom I only wish I had longer, to take care of you, I was getting pretty good at it. This in truth, is so much, and some of it, you would be sad about the direction things have gone. You and I, Mom, as kin to Christ Jesus, will praise in the storm and praise in the sun. The Non-profit Teal Cure 4 Jokita is underway and we are bringing ?O'wareness to Ovarian Cancer. I ?Live' you everyday

Knowing and working with Joyce was a definite high point in my career. We shared many a conversation at the smoking area – even though she didn't smoke. I am deeply saddened by her passing but I know her good will and words shall carry on for many years. She accomplished more than most people dream of.

Spirited and feisty this is the woman I was so blessed to have met during her hospitalization. The firm voice eye contact and strong desire for independance always inspired my respect for her. As time passed Tamara became the strength, motivation wisdom that Mom needed...never faltering from her bedside duties...I encouraged them to write their memoirs...I too will miss this lady....Blessings ...respectfully... To the Loyd family. Our hearts go out to you in this time. May Gods comfort and grace protect you in times of sadness. Looking through the picture gallery brought back so many memories of the times our families shared together. She is watching, she is smiling and she is so proud of the work her babies have accomplished together. God bless you all. Love Ila, Lisa and Ericka...

Joyce and I have worked together for over 30 years. We have had many wonderful experiences and a lot of laughs. Joyce loved to tell the story of how people could not tell us apart and how they were always mixing us up. One time Joyce got an envelope addressed to her as Joyce St.Loyd. I will miss you my friend.
