to the Leverte family, I am sorry to hear of Tom's passing. He was a unique gentleman. I met Tom at EMC with his heart surgery and the following admits. It was a honor to meet such a nice person who fought with all his heart. We all will remember him and the brave fight he fought. From the staff of the ICU.

Dear Jean, I was so sorry to read in THE NEW YORK TIMES the passing of your husband. I, too, lost my husband so I do understand how you feel. I do remember your wedding at Our Saviour's and the beautiful church ceremony. My prayers are with you. Annette Petrusa (Fibers Division (ACCO))

Jean, Al and I are so sorry to learn about Tom. We think of you both so often...especially when the Indian Wells tennis matches are playing. I always look over to see if I can catch a glimpse of Tom in the front row. Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time. – Hugs, Al and Dana lin Bernstein
