Nana was a person whom i really admired for her strength, her beauty, and her ability to be the head of this beautiful family. she truly is an iconic figure, i remember being at kristen and michael's house, and not understanding a word she was saying, but she continued to speak and help me figure out what she was trying to communicate even though the language barrier separated us. if you would take a picture of nana like the one in this book of her younger years and put it next to nellie, my mom, and I you can see how strong her genes are even through trickling down the line. i loved her, and i will miss her very much. – Jade

August 16, 2010 Dear sister Patty and Mike, Now that our beloved mother has been transposed from her Worldly life to Eternal life? Now that the Ceremony is concluded and we've all returned to our quiet homes to ponder and reflect on her majestic life, our life with her, as her son and daughters? I can not thank you Patty, Mike, Michael Jr., Kristen, Danielle and Meghan enough to express my gratitude and appreciation for making your loving and caring home a permanent place, where our beloved mother, proudly pronounced it as her "mi casa"! Patty, your caring affection, undivided attention and restless vigilance over her fragile existence over the past 26 years provided much needed security, comfort, continuity, permanence, and yes, peace of mind, most of all to our mother, but also to the rest of us that have been longing to be with her endearing presence? but, only from a distance? Patty, by your kind, humane and Nobel gesture to have become the "Keeper and Protector" of our family's "Crown Jewel", you have for ever set the highest standards for all sons and daughters, everywhere, to look upon and to emulate? For what you Patty and Mike have done is the noblest of human deeds? You've cared for and honored our mother, as son of God, Jesus loved and honored his mother? May God always bless you two, bless and protect your beautiful and amazing children for ever and ever. I'm humbled and inspired by your noble actions, your kindness, immense generosity and humanity. With love and respect, Angelica Franco-Karayan

Dear Mom, Through your unconditional, endless love, bed-rock character, infinite wisdom, and most of all....through the nature of your humble saintly humanity...you have inspired, empowered and emboldened me to live a life of dignity, then, die a death worth of legends like you. You allowed me to grow, build my character and learn the lessons of life that have unfolded upon my journey. You made life a Joy, you touched our lives in a very special way. I will always remember your special smile and kind beautiful eyes, and especially how you adored your grandchildren. Your love, guidance and incredible memories will be with me Forever. Love always.....Angelica (your – Angie)

Mom, I never thought that I would be writing you a loving note, since I usually talk with you daily. You are my mother, the most important and loving person. I'm in peace and content that you are resting in heaven. I know that you will be waiting for your children and one day not to far from now, we will all reunite again. I love you so much and this is not a good bye, but a "will see you soon", my precious mother. _____Martha (Zuris)

On behalf of my brother Michael Eddy Jr. whom I have been in contact with through e-mail while he is at war in Afghanistan, I'm going to voice his wwords of love for Nana as he asked me to. He expressed to me that he could not have been blessed with a greater Grandmother, that maybe he never felt confused because nana assured him several times a day of what an amazing boy he was. She made him feel so special and so truly loved, if anything, he knew that his love for her in return made her feel very happy and that was gratifying enough for him. He now feels that Nana is in the best place that anyone could be and she will be remembered now until forever. I love you Nana.....Michael Eddy Jr/ Kristen

Nana was more than just a grandmother, she was our second mom. For nana, family was her life. No one could ever tear her away for even a moment from her motherly instincts, she was constantly running around caring and loving everyone. There is not near enough time to express all the lasting memories and characteristics of nana that will remain with me forever, but a couple of the ones that stick out the most are that I never needed a best friend growing up as a young child because nana was just that for me, she was all I needed to bring me joy and laughter, to comfort me when I was down, to play with me when I was lonely or to just listen to me when I wanted to be heard, she was my other half. I will never forget nana's contagious laughter and comedic personality, nana could lift anyone's spirits. Nana you will always hold a spot nearest to my heart and I thank you for helping to mold me into the woman I am today. I love you always and forever. _____Kristen

Nana, you left a legacy impossible to match. Without fancy words, "bible study", or society's labels, your actions told every one exactly what you stood for, and where your values came from. I miss you, my little "bolita de amor", and will never forget you or your legacy. _____G. Franco
