One year has gone by and you are and will always be in our hearts and minds. I always looked up to you Tio and thank you for all the advise you gave me. My kids speak of you and even my little one still speaks of his Tio Rudy with the candy bag you gave him. You are home now Tio. Always watch over us.

My cousin Pucó, Floods of memories come to my mind as I think of you. We spent our childhood together. Our whole lives we only lived a few houses from each other. I remember how we went to school together, when we would ride our bikes, especially your mini bike that we rode on the hill behind your house! How we would ride on the back of your dad's truck when we would go to T.J. to see our Tia Chayo. When we would go to Tomboy's store to go buy chips and sodas, while Neri made lunch for us during the summer. When we got older, we went camping with our families. It was also great fun when all of us primos from San Diego would go out to eat dinner and we would all just laugh and laugh! I just can't wrap my brain around the fact that you're gone. A piece in all of us is missing, that space belongs to you. I know you are now resting in the Lord. I will cherish these memories, until we see each other again! Tu prima, Pilu

In My Pocket I have memories in my pocket. They rattle among the change. My memories of you are treasures I carry wherever I go. They are stored in bits and pieces, parts of a beautiful whole. They give me comfort when I think I am alone. Yes, I have memories in my pocket, like so much other stuff I keep there. But of all the treasures I have, it's the memories of you that are the most precious.

To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving yearsbecause you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile,knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile.So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low,just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go.When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind;I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free,remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. I only knew Rudy for such a short time as his health care provider, but in that time I recognized a truly compassionate man who cared deeply for his family. He spoke at length to me about his children and Yolanda and the love and dreams he had for their futures. He was a brave person with a great amount of dignity. He had become a very special patient to me and I will miss him greatly.
