You have memories in your pocket. That rattle among the change. Your memories of Keimani is treasured as you carry them where ever you go. They are stored in bits and pieces, parts of a beautiful whole. They give you comfort when you think you are alone. Yes, You have many memories in your pocket, like so much other stuff you keep. But of all the treasures you have, it's Keimani's memories that are the most precious. Take comfort in knowing that now you have a special guardian angel to watch over you!!!!

Dear Willie and Family, I won't ever be the one to offer you mere words of encouragement. Because you have, on more than one occasion, extended to me love and friendship, I offer you all that I know that could sustain through this time. Will, I extend to you and your family the truth as I know it to be. That Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ "Will prove himself faithful" and "Will comfort you in this time." My family and I offer you our love. We will pray for and expect God to bring healing to you and the family.

Sometime in life things happen to people that we love and it leaves us puzzled. For me this is one of those moments. I'm angry and jealous at the same time that someone we all loved so much was taken away from us so early. But through all of my personal feelings I know that God has taken Keimani to a place where there's no pain or worries. Also because I know that Keimani is in the place of protection standing under the wings of angels, it brings me joy knowing that she's okay. Keimani I love you and I know that we will see each other again, but this time it will be for eternity?. Love, Uncle Steve

Will, The Sulton Family, prays for you and your family in this time of bereavement. I want you to know no matter how early or late it is, me and my family are here for you. But Jesus said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness". Therefore will I boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong. 2 Cor 12: 9-10. My God bless you
