

Concha Lozano

OCT 31, 1933 - APR 11, 2010

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Tribute Wall	Page 3
---------------------------	--------

Tribute Wall

Concha Lozano

OCT 31, 1933 - APR 11, 2010

Ryan Mann lit a candle in honor of Concha.

Hi my name is Ryan. Concha was my Nana until I started pre-school. My younger brother's Nana passed away recently and so I decided to reach out to Concha. I regret not having done so sooner. I don't remember a lot from my time with her, but I do remember specific things. I remember having my favorite breakfast oatmeal and toast there. I remember playing Madden NFL on her N64. I remember falling off the couch at her house. I remember her voice even if the only words I can recall was her saying my name. At the end of the day I just want to express how grateful I am to have had such a wonderful Nana. She fed me my first solid food in chips and salsa that instilled a love for spice that burns bright to this day.

October 23 at 11:21 AM

Ryan Mann lit a candle in honor of Concha.

Hi my name is Ryan. Concha was my Nana and cared for me until I started pre-school. My younger brother's Nana passed away recently which led to me trying to look Concha up and I regret not being able to meet her again. I don't remember a lot about my time with her, but I do remember some specific things. I remember her making me oat meal and toast, I remember play madden NFL on her N64. I remember falling off her couch. I remember her voice even if the only words I remember her saying was my name. At the end of the day I just want to express how grateful I am to have had such an amazing Nana. She fed me my first solid food in chips and salsa and that has instilled in me a love for Mexican food that still burns bright today.

October 23 at 11:14 AM

Ryan Mann October 25 at 9:49 PM

Thought my first comment got lost didn't mean to write twice

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Concha by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

