No words can explain how wonderful this lady was. 15 years ago she taught me so much about caring for others. We went so many places together. She taught me how to interact with clients and caregivers, to make them feel comfortable and how to "fluff feathers". She taught me how to take care of Hospice clients with dignity and love. We traveled a lot in those first years and met wonderful people. We attended her meetings she had with the towns different organizations. We loved to go eat together too. We would laugh when we would get lost , and call it " another journey". She was so sweet and thoughtful. Her precious family meant the world to her .Thank you for the privilege of getting to be near a wonderful family like hers. I can go on and on forever. I will miss her dearly, I loved her dearly. Heaven has a new Angel.Always and forever in my heartAdina Dexter
