Tata fuiste una persona importantísima en mi vida. Desde que me casé con tu nieto Alex, Nana y usted me recibieron con los brazos abiertos y me brindaron su amor incondicional. A pesar de la distancia y el dolor de estar lejos de mi propia familia, gracias a tu amor, tu calidez, tu positividad nunca me sentí sola, siempre estuve apoyada de usted y su familia que hoy es la mía. En nana y en usted encontré a esos abuelitos que yo tanto buscaba y necesitaba. Recuerdo que cada noche cuando no se podía dormir, tomaba su biblia y la leía, incluso cuando ya no podía mirar mucho, sacaba su lupa y leía toda la noche. En uno de sus cumpleaños le compre una biblia en grabadora para que ya no tuviera que desgastar sus ojos, la miro tan emocionado y me dijo que fue el mejor regalo que le pude haber dado. Fuiste una persona con mucha fe, tanta fe que fue capaz de iluminar y cambiar vidas, incluyendo la mía. Me quedo con la alegría que siempre me brindaste, aquella emoción cuando entraba por la puerta y me decías emocionado, mi güerita ya viene mi güerita. Yo también me emocionada al entrar y verte; muchas veces tuve días muy malos y me sentía tan triste y no supiste y no te dije, pero después de mirarte y de platicar, después de contarme muchas de tus historias, yo salía de tu casa sin tristeza y sin dolor. Muchas veces era tu conversación y tu presencia la que habían llenado mi día de felicidad y luz. Gracias por tanto y por todo, por permitirme compartir muchos momentos y por brindarme el enorme honor de formar parte de tu familia. Tata te recordaré, celebraré y amaré por siempre. Iliana Ruiz

Anamaria Gonzales posted:

I remember my Uncle Ralph with fond memories. He was always there to share a joke or to make us laugh. He was always with my dad (Tio Martin) since we were neighbors telling each other stories or whatever the brothers talked about. Tio Ralph, you fought the good fight! Now go in peace and rest in the loving arms of our Savior. May the Lord bring peace and comfort to your loved ones that remain behind until you're reunited again in the heaven. Love you Tio. I remember all the social gatherings we had with our uncle Rafael, he was always making us laugh with his jokes, he was always joyful and always a pleasure to spend time with. I looked up to him as my second father, he would share with me his stories, when he and his brothers were growing up in Mexicali. You are not forgotten uncle Rafael, you are with The Lord and he has placed you in His Home. God bless your spirit. Eduardo Naranjo
